July 2020

Well, here we are at the start of July. Half way through the year and hasn't it been such a different time to any thing that most of us have ever experienced. I remember my dear old Dad talking about growing up in the Depression when his biggest worry was if there was anything for breakfast or dinner. During the lockdown we were talking about Nan and Pops experiences with hunger and Gill and I decided that we would help our Community and a nationwide appeal for supplies for Food Banks. We made 2 large donations to assist people who have been struggling through this very trying time.

Since we reopened in level two we have been exceptionally busy helping people set themselves and their families up with warm, dry clothing for the winter, so we want to say a VERY BIG THANK YOU to all the locals who have shopped local and kept our store and the others in Taumarunui ticking along. Gill and I are very grateful to be a part of such a wonderful caring community.

This month we have some more new products from SPIKA and some Hunters Element clothing to keep you warm and dry. All are priced below their Recommended Retail price to help you out at this time.

On the Firearms Legislation front; the bill has passed it's third reading and is about to become Law. The Act Party and National did all they could to point out the major flaws that the new legislation contains but the Government would not delay the passing of this bill even though the Royal Commission had not published their findings into the Christchurch shooting.

From all I have read and listened too I am pretty sure the finger will be firmly pointed at the police for not carrying out the vetting process properly for the Gunman as was then legislated. Time will tell and we await this report but it will not bring the 51 victims back.

Cheers for now and keep your powder dry. Ken.

The Slide Jacket is a do-it-all workhorse, waterproof & breathable jacket. It's quiet, lightweight and packs down tight and disappears in the bottom of a backpack making it the perfect deer stalkers coat or jacket for the footy. It has two lower billowed pockets which can handle a couple of boxes of 12g cartridges or a wallet and keys, and a hidden chest pocket to handle callers or cell phones. This thing is the perfect all-round jacket that can't be beaten on price. It looks good, it's quiet, it breathes, it has all the features and most importantly it's super waterproof. 10,000mm waterproof rating.

Aussie Joke!!

Two Aussie farmers, Jim and Bob, are sitting at their favourite bar, drinking beer. Jim turns to Bob and says,
"You know, I'm tired of going through life without an education. Tomorrow I think I'll go to the community college, and sign up for some classes."

Bob thinks it's a good idea, and the two leave. The next day, Jim goes down to the college and meets Dean of Admissions, who signs him up for the four basic classes: Math, English, History, and Logic.

"Logic?" Jim says. "What's that?"

The dean says, "I'll give you an example. Do you own a weed eater?"

"Yeah."

"Then logically speaking, because you own a weed eater, I think that you would have a yard."

"That's true, I do have a yard." "I'm not done," the dean says. "Because you have a yard, I think logically that you would have a house."

"Yes, I do have a house."

"And because you have a house, I think that you might logically have a family."

"Yes, I have a family."

"I'm not done yet. Because you have a family, then logically you must have a wife, and because you have a wife, then logic tells me you must be a heterosexual."

"I am a heterosexual. That's amazing, you were able to find out all of that because I have a weed eater."

Excited to take the class now, Jim shakes the Dean's hand and leaves to go meet Bob at the bar. He tells Bob about his classes, how he is signed up for Math, English, History, and Logic.

"Logic?" Bob says, "What's that?"

Jim says, "I'll give you an example. Do you have a weed eater?"

"No."

"Then you must be a poofter."
